

awgill@adorno.com
561.454.0301
Delray Beach

Practice Areas:
Litigation

Practice Groups:
Collections

Admitted Only In:
Florida

Wayne Gill is a Partner in the Firm's Delray Beach office and is the Chairman of the Corporate Asset Recovery Department. Mr. Gill represents a wide variety of individuals and businesses, ranging from small businesses to Fortune 500 companies. He is a counselor and litigator of substantial experience having litigated hundreds of contested legal matters in the state of Florida over the past fourteen years.

Mr. Gill is also the author of the book Tales My Grandma Told Me - a Business Diversity Fable which explores the world of minority business development and corporate supplier diversity.

EXPERIENCE

- Collections
- Commercial litigation

EDUCATION

- J.D., George Washington University National Law Center (1992)
- B.A., Trinity College (1987)

INVOLVEMENT

- Admitted to practice in: Florida; U.S. District Court, Southern District of Florida; Federal Bar
- Member, American Bar Association (Business Law Section); The Florida Bar (Equal Opportunities Committee); National Bar Association; Palm Beach County Bar Association
- Member, Commercial Law League of America
- Member, Business Development Board of Palm Beach County
- Member, Junior Achievement
- Board Member & Secretary, Florida Regional Minority Business Council
- Board Chairman, Minority Business Input Committee
- Chairman, Small Business Committee
- Voted one of "50 Most Influential Black Professionals" for 2007 by Success South Florida Magazine