

cbopst@adorno.com
305-460-1084
Miami

Practice Areas:

Construction

Litigation

Practice Groups:

Appeals

Business Disputes

Commercial Litigation

Construction

Christopher Bopst is a Partner in the firm's Miami office and a member of the Litigation Department. His primary areas of practice include litigation and appeals at both the state and federal levels, as well as arbitration, with a focus on business torts, commercial disputes, construction disputes, trade secrets and unfair trade practices. Mr. Bopst is also General Counsel for the United States Hispanic Contractors Association, a national, non-profit trade association established to provide the support necessary for the advancement, economic growth, and full participation of Hispanic-owned businesses in all areas of contracting and procurement contracts.

EXPERIENCE

- Has handled appeals to Florida District Courts of Appeal and the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals
- Extensive representation of companies in the prosecution and defense of claims for interference with business relationships
- Enforcement of restrictive covenants such as non-compete and non-disclosure agreements
- Extensive representation of contractors in construction disputes

EDUCATION

- J.D., cum laude, University of Notre Dame (1998)
- B.A., cum laude, Canisius College (1995)

INVOLVEMENT

- Admitted to practice in all Florida and New York state courts, U.S. District Court Southern District of Florida, United States Court of Appeals, Eleventh Circuit
- Member, Miami-Dade County Bar Association
- Member, New York State Bar Association
- Member, Knights of Columbus
- Co-Presenter, "Boundaries, Disputes & Cultural Clashes: Some Reflections on Socrates, Galileo, Intelligent Design & Extraterrestrials" - 8th International Conference on Social Values in Education and Business, University of Oxford, July 2006

